

This is an e-Vroom for FRUSTRATED feelings?

What will they look like? What color and shape will they be?

Will you show some kind of creature? Are you in the room too?

This page lets you measure HOW MUCH of a feeling you have right now. Print this page to color the bottles and rulers. Show what you feel.

(There are more "HOW MUCH?" pages with thermometers, tanks and dials that can be printed from the HOME page.

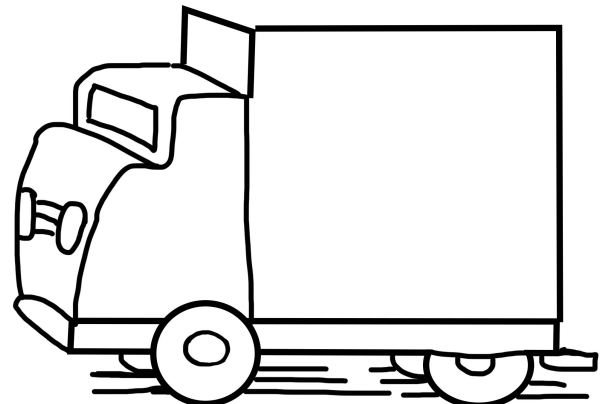

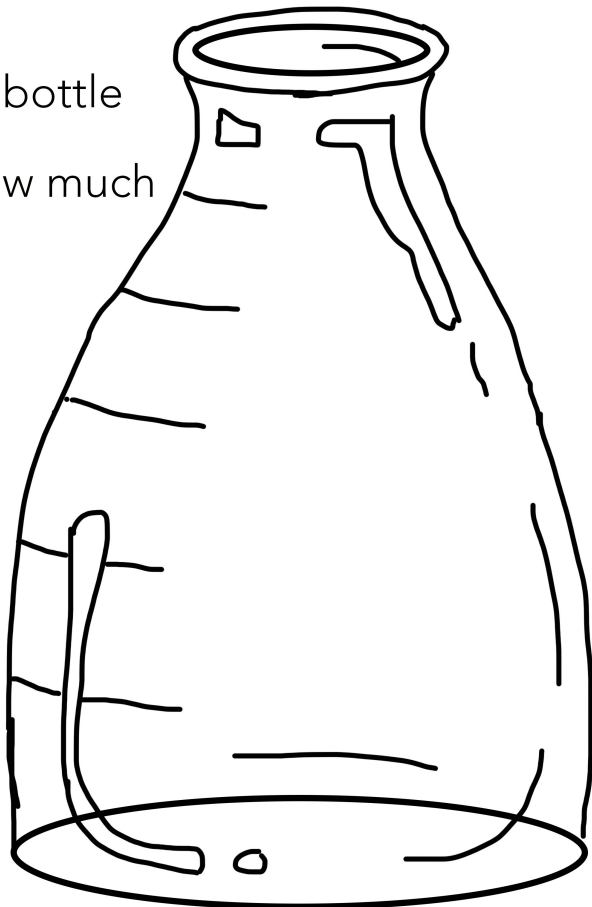

"HOW MUCH" pages are for any feeling).

On this ruler, 1= not much and 10= ALOT of feeling.

Whats your number? _____. Color the ruler!

Fill the bottle
with how much feeling
you have!

Fill the truck with your feeling
How high will the pile reach?
